Join us for a day of exploring Maxwell Street history!

Join Jane Addams Hull-House Museum for a day of exploring Maxwell Street history through artifacts from the Hull-House and Maxwell Street Foundation collections, tours, food, music, and conversations with neighbors. This collaborative event presented by Hull-House and its West Side neighbors Maxwell Street Foundation and Connecting4Communities is open to the public free of charge. This program is a part of the Making the West Side project at Hull-House, funded by the National Endowment for the Humanities that brings together scholars, activists, neighborhood residents and other stakeholders to explore the histories of neighborhood change on Chicago's West Side.

10-11:30am - Walking Tour on Maxwell Street led by Maxwell Street Foundation. Meet in the Maxwell Street cul-de-sac, 1/2 block west of Halsted

12-4pm - Open House with refreshments, music and Maxwell Street artifacts on view in Hull-House courtyard

1-2pm - Public Tour of Jane Addams Hull-House Museum
